Incident Summary: On February 1, 2022, at 10:58 AM, patrol officers were dispatched to the 1st Block of Buttles Ave to report a residence being struck by gunfire. Officers responded to the above location after the resident noticed the upstairs bedroom window of the residence had been struck/shattered by a single gunshot between 7:30 PM and 10 PM the previous day, January 31, 2022. The resident was home at the time of the incident but was not in the actual room in which the bullet entered the residence. Upon noticing the window was struck, the resident shook the curtain that partially covers the window and a spent round fell to the ground. The responding officers collected the spent round and transported it to the Columbus Police Property Room to be held as evidence. This incident is still under investigation and anyone with information is asked to contact Burglary Unit Detective Michelle Perry #2201 at (614) 645-2407, or Central Ohio Crime Stoppers at (614) 461-TIPS (8477).
